THOUSANDS OF RED TROOPS MASSING IN EAST KOREA

MODIFICATION OF CONTROLS ACT IS URGED

Washington, Aug. 31—(P)—Economic Stabilizer Eric Johnston told Congress today the nation faces costly and possibly disastrous consequences unless three restrictions on the price control program are ripped out of the law books.

He was the third of the nation's economic high command to go before the Senate Banking Committee to argue for repeal of three amendments to the controls law which have been in effect only one month. Defense Mobilizer Charles E. Wilson and Price Director Michael V. Disalle testified yesterday.

Several members of the committee told Wilson and Disalle immediate repeal is out of the question. They did not close the door on possible modification.

One of the amendments President Truman and his stabilization lieutenants want removed would let a seller pass on to the consumer all increases in costs between the start of the Korean War and last July 26.

A second would allow wholesalers and retailers the customary percentage margins of profit they enjoyed before the Korean war.

A third would bar federal slaughterhouse quotas on livestock.

Johnston said that in amending the control law, Congress left in mandate to prevent inflation from wrecking the nation's economy, but took away the authority needed to carry out the direction.

With the House adjourned until Sept. 12, the administration was concentrating on the Senate committee in its drive to get the law changed.

Senate Committee Calls On Cities Across Land to Band Together in a War on Crime

Washington, Aug. 30—(P)—The senate crime investigating committee called on cities across the land today to band together in a war on organized crime and grafting public officials.

In a final report to the senate on its sensational 15-month-long inquiry, the committee told of "captive communities" held in bondage by the twin evils.

The committee goes out of existence at midnight tonight. But it strongly urged that congress carry on the crusade and that with federal help only at the start a privately-financed national crime coordinating council be created to keep "the searchlight of public vigilance turned upon crime and corruption."

In calling for unrelenting war on the underworld, the committee said the proposed National Crime Council could be a "great contribution toward the cause of law enforcement."

Behind this group, the report said, should be privately organized local crime commissions throwing their weight into the fight and keeping alive a public demand for cleanup.

The committee suggested Congress grant $100,000 to help organize the council and recommended that government officials lend a hand in setting it up. Thereafter, the council would be expected to get its operating funds from charitable groups or private contributions.

President Truman would designate the council chairman from a group nominated by the council itself.

As other weapons in the crusade against crime, the committee recommended:

1. A careful overhauling of state and local laws to make them more effective.
2. A high geared attack on the narcotics traffic, in which state and local officials would form a team with the federal authorities who now carry the bulk of the load.

The committee endorsed again legislation pending in Congress to require gangsters to keep specially detailed tax reports which would, in effect, confess their misdeeds—and inflict felony punishments on evaders.

The committee aimed stinging thrusts at Florida's Governor Fuller Warren and, by indirection, at William O'Dwyer, ambassador to Mexico and former mayor of New York.

The report also pictured Washington, the nation's capital, as a possible "pivot point for gambling operation of considerable size." There is evidence, too, the committee said, "of widespread traffic in narcotic drugs" in the District of Columbia.

The group recommended a new senate committee make a "thorough investigation" of crime conditions here, especially any tieups between criminal elements in the capital and adjoining areas.

The committee denounced "a startling increase" in drug addiction among the nation's teen-age youth, described dramatically as the blame on the same gangland which it charged runs "the lucrative field of illegal gambling, often operating under corrupt official sanction."

The evils it described, the report said, were found to be as deeply rooted in the medium sized cities as in the big ones, and named some names to back its point.

The report rapped Governor Warren of Florida for "persistent refusal" to testify under oath in the committee's inquiry into the Florida underworld. The committee charged that Florida gambling "is controlled by interstate syndicates and unsavory associates of men in high office."

"Throughout the Florida testimony," the report added, "the name of Governor Warren cropped up frequently in questionable connections."

Youngest 'Ham'

Thirteen-year-old David Thein, above, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Thein, Cobham Park road, Warren, is the youngest licensed radio amateur with a general amateur's license in the state.

Yesterday David passed his radio examination at the Federal Communications Commission office in Buffalo. It was necessary for him to pass an international Morse code test of 13 words per minute. A written test was taken also which averages about two hours.

David started studying for his license as soon as school ended this summer. He was given assistance and instruction by the WNAE engineering staff.

The young man will now build a shortwave transmitter which will enable him to talk with other amateurs many miles away. He is the 14th amateur in the Warren area. (Times-Mirror photo).

PLAN TO CUT FOREIGN AID BILL FOILED

Washington, Aug. 31—(P)—The senate refused today to cut another $500,000,000 out of the $7,635,750,000 foreign aid bill.

In a major test, it defeated by a 41 to 51 vote an effort by 16 senators to cut the half billion from $1,130,500,000 of economic aid for Europe.

With this victory, administration forces hoped to push ahead despite numerous other pending amendments and eventually pass the bill, probably late tonight.

Senator Dirksen (R-Ill.) today told the senate the economic cooperation administration (ECA) has hired the former national chairman of the Socialist party as a consultant.

Dirksen was urging the senate to cut another $500,000,000 from a $7,635,750,000 foreign aid bill. Fifteen other senators joined him in sponsoring the amendment.

The cut would come out of $1,130,500,000 proposed for economic aid for Europe, to be handled by ECA.

Dirksen read to the senate a letter from ECA confirming that Maynard C. Krueger is on its payroll as a $45-a-day consultant on southeast Asia aid.

Dirksen said Krueger was National chairman of the Socialist party. (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Report Critical of Officials in Two Towns in Penn'a

By FRANK TRAGLE
AP Special Washington Service
Washington, Aug. 31—(P)—The senate crime investigating committee today took a resounding slap at police and political attitudes toward gambling in Scranton and Reading, Pa.

A committee report had this to say of Scranton:

"Law-enforcement officials in Scranton seemingly are affected with the same peculiar blindness toward organized gambling that has been apparent to the committee in its inquiries in other cities."

"Except for the aggressive investigative accomplishments of the Pennsylvania state police and their noteworthy efforts to cripple lottery operations centered in the cities of northeastern Pennsylvania, the committee finds that official lethargy toward organized gambling is so appalling as to be shocking to the public conscience."

"The 'slap on the wrist' attitude evidenced by the 'close and stay closed' orders of nebulous nature can hardly be regarded as an adequate substitute for rigid enforcement that is marked by arrest and conviction, and where the circumstances warrant it, imprisonment."

The committee's attitude toward Reading was put this way:

"The committee has no difficulty, after reviewing the Reading testimony and particularly that of (police) Chief Birney, in arriving at the conclusion that Reading is a classic example of political strangulation of a police department at the behest of gambling interests seeking to thwart any interference with their activities."

New Structure to Replace Third Ave. Service Station

Plans for construction of one of the most modern service stations in the state were announced today by Emblem Oil Company, the station to be located on West Third Avenue between Liberty and Hickory streets on the site of Emblem's present service station.

The new building, which will have 1,571 square feet of floor space, will be about 33x51 feet in size, with a height of 14 feet. The exterior will be finished in porcelain-enamel, and the station will be similar to one Emblem is to build in Corry almost immediately.

The Erie Enameling Company of Erie, is named as both architect and builder, and an Emblem official said this afternoon that the station "will be one of which Warren may well be proud." He said the Erie firm will use local labor and local contractors in the construction.

Taft-Hartley Law Invoked in Dispute

Washington, Aug. 31—(P)—Efforts to settle the wage dispute which has shut down most of the nation's copper industry continued today despite an initial step by President Truman to obtain a back-to-work order from the courts.

The president issued an executive order last night to put the emergency machinery of the Taft-Hartley labor act in motion in a strike for the first time in 20 months.

The strike, which Mr. Truman earlier termed a serious threat to the national defense program because copper is a scarce and critical metal, started Monday.

The president named a three-man board of inquiry which went to work at once, in an effort to report back on the facts by next Tuesday, as requested by the president. The board is not authorized to recommend a settlement.

The board arranged an organization session today. Hearings might be possible by tomorrow.

TRAFFIC FATALITY

Uniontown, Aug. 31—(P)—An auto-truck crash today killed a Uniontown truck driver and injured a man and his two sons on route 40 at nearby Namona Village. Dead is Paul Bakas, about 40. In Uniontown hospital are Augie Vilseck, 48, and his two sons, Augie, Jr., 13, and Robert 10.

REAL ARMY FAMILY—Just home from Tokyo is this real army family. Mrs. Alfred W. Channing, the former Vivian Johnston, met her husband while serving with the WACs in World War II. He's now a master sergeant in the Air Force. Craig Channing, left, is 3 1/2 years old and was born at Mitchell Field, Terry, 19 months old, was born at the Tokyo Army Hospital. Sgt. Channing has been stationed with his family for several years in Japan, and recently flew cargo ships to Korea, carrying supplies to the U. N. troops and evacuating the wounded to hospitals in Japan. The family returned to San Francisco about a week ago aboard the USS General Brewster, and then hopped a plane to New York where they visited relatives for a week. Mrs. Channing and the two boys, shown here in embroidered Japanese jackets, then came to Warren where they are visiting Mrs. Channing's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Johnston, 101 Russell street. Sgt. Channing now expects to receive a new assignment at Sampson, N. Y., Air Force base. (Times-Mirror Photo).

Quiet Labor Day Weekend in Prospect For Residents of Warren and Vicinity

Weakened, dried-up Aunt Summer picked the proverbial last rose from her withering garden today, pinned it jauntily in her faded hair, and prepared for one last fling over a long Labor Day week-end.

The little old lady has plenty of dates to keep 'tween now and Tuesday. She can sit herself down at any number of picnic tables, she can scream "Kill that umpire!" at several baseball games, she can watch the Warren High gridiron teams in their first action of the season, she can release the safety brake on her wheel chair and take a dip in lake or stream, and, if she cares to discard her crutches, she is at liberty to play golf and dance at the Conewango Valley Country Club.

Many Warren folk will brave the crowded highways and motor to distant points, but for those who stay at home there is no dearth of entertainment. Early in the week-end events is the water battle at North Warren this evening between teams representing the North Warren, Russell, Sheffield, and Youngville Fire Departments, followed by a dance in the Community House. There will be a record dance tonight at the Youth Canteen.

The annual Labor Day week-end dinner and dance will take place at the Conewango Valley Country Club Saturday night, and the Phalanx Fraternity will hold its "back-to-school" dance at Youth Canteen, the same evening, with an orchestra providing the inspiration for the younger set.

Sunday's outstanding event is the annual picnic of the Warren County Active Volunteer Firemen's Association at Wilder Field, Youngville, starting at 1:30 p. m. with a basket dinner at six o'clock. Each department is in charge of a separate activity in the day's events.

The Ludlow Wildcats will play the Jamestown Bombers at Ludlow at 3 p. m. on Sunday, and their Labor Day game is with Black Ash, at Wilcox Park.

The annual Homecoming celebration will be held at the Youth Canteen. (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Allied Planes Ripping Into Reinforcements, Convoys and Railroads Feeding Into Front

U. S. Eighth Army Headquarters, Korea, Aug. 31—(P)—Thousands of North Korean troops were reported today moving toward the front in hilly eastern Korea. Savage fighting has been in progress there more than two weeks.

Yesterday and last night, Allied planes ripped into these reinforcements, into their highway supply convoys and the railroads feeding down to Communist front lines all across Korea.

Allies supplied their own front line troops with the biggest air drop in two months. Thirty-six flying box cars parachuted 110 tons of ammunition, rations and medical supplies yesterday to troops battling high in the mountains of eastern Korea. Rain swollen streams and muddy roads cut off truck routes.

A U. S. Eighth Army staff officer today reported the following new observations of Communist troops in eastern Korea:

A fresh division, about 8,000 men, digging in west of the coastal city of Kaesong, 25 miles north of parallel 38.

About 2,000 Reds moving south toward Yanggu, a city eight miles north of 38 and 35 miles inland from the east coast. Allied planes roared down and attacked this group.

Two other groups of 5,000 Reds each in camouflaged positions west of Kaesong and north of Inje. Allied artillery fired on these concentrations yesterday.

The staff officer said all the new Reds presumably are North Koreans. In the past, large Communist drives have been spearheaded by Chinese Reds.

Allied troops repulsed four Communist probing attacks north of Yanggu yesterday.

A far east air forces summary Friday reported heavy attacks on the Reds' main railways, leaving many sections in twisted wreckage. Bombers went after railroad yards filled with loaded boxcars.

In Washington, the air force reported aerial photographs showed that a bombing raid last Saturday on Rashin, within 15 miles of Vladivostok, had cut North Korea's rail links with Vladivostok.

The 300-ton B-29 said hit a rail center and port which the bombers had been banned from attacking earlier because of its nearness to Russian soil.

U. N. Investigates New Complaints of Zone Violations

Tokyo, Aug. 31—(P)—An Allied spokesman said today "there is no indication that there will be a permanent breakdown" in truce talks to end the Korean war.

The spokesman made the statement amid a welter of new Communist charges that United Nations forces violated the Kaesong neutral zone in Korea.

The U. N. command began an immediate investigation of the new complaints. There were three of them. All previous charges have been denied.

At Munsan, advance headquarters in Korea of U. N. truce negotiators, Major James MacMaster told newsmen there was no sign of a final breakdown in the talks.

The Allied spokesman amplified his statement only by referring to the announced U. N. willingness to resume talks whenever the Reds are ready. Communists broke them off eight days ago.

Other sources observed that neither side wants to assume responsibility for renewing full scale warfare.

While the Reds have not answered Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway's offer to resume negotiations, they maintained official contact between truce delegations by the mere act of filing new protests.

North Korean Gen. Nam Il, chief Communist negotiator, protested to Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, head of the U. N. delegation, that an Allied plane dropped a flare over Kaesong Wednesday morning.

Nam Il called it an "unbridled, unrepentant, provocative act." He demanded that "the culprit be severely punished." The Red general told Joy "the record x x x proves that you are the reckless and unscrupulous breaker of agreements."

A Red liaison officer who delivered the note to an Allied liaison officer lodged verbal protests that U. N. infantrymen twice violated the neutral zone.

McMaster said the U. S. Fifth Air Force and Eighth Army promptly began investigating the charges.

He said the U. N. command "had answered all the previous Communist accusations and denied all of them."

First 28th Units Due in Camp Today

Camp Atterbury, Ind., Aug. 31—(P)—First units of the 28th Division are due to return to camp Atterbury today from Southern war games.

The arrival of the advanced units from Fort Bragg, N. C., will mark the first anniversary of the reopening of this army camp in south central Indiana.

The 28th, former Pennsylvania National Guard Division, is commanded by Maj. Gen. Daniel B. Strickler. It is scheduled to sail for Europe in the fall—probably in November.

The first of seven vehicle convoys due to arrive here is carrying the 107th and 109th Field Artillery battalions and advance groups of other units.

Most heavy equipment and oversized vehicles will arrive Sunday and the main body of troops next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Ouster of Sec. Acheson Is Demanded in Resolution Adopted at VFW Convention

New York, Aug. 31—(P)—The Veterans of Foreign Wars have demanded the ouster of Secretary of State Dean Acheson and other "policy-making" officials of his department.

A resolution adopted at the VFW's 52nd national encampment calls for the removal of all persons in the State Department "whose loyalty to American ideals is questionable."

The VFW aimed its blast also at those State Department officials "whose ignorance, misfeasance and non-feasance have resulted in failure in the field of diplomatic relations."

State Department policy, the resolution said, has created "intolerable international and internal situations that can only be solved by instituting a new and American-like leadership in the Department of State."

The resolution was adopted by voice vote yesterday. VFW commander-in-chief Charles G. Ralls ruled the resolution was passed by a two-thirds majority.

The measure was an extension of a similar resolution adopted at last year's VFW convention in Chicago.

Shortly after yesterday's resolution, the veterans applauded and cheered an attack on Acheson and other administration leaders by Senator Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.).

McCarthy suggested in an address to the VFW a jury trial of his accusations against Acheson and Ambassador-at-Large Philip C. Jessup.

McCarthy offered to resign from the senate if the jury ruled against him. (Turn to Page Thirteen)

Warren Man Dies Suddenly While On Fishing Trip

Randall Wood Clark, 118 Second Avenue, in Bancroft, Ontario, on a fishing trip, died suddenly at three o'clock this morning at Birch Cliff Lodge at that place. Aged nearly 61 years, he had been suffering a heart ailment for some time.

Mr. Clark left here yesterday in company with his son, David, along with Glenn Stone and his son, Dick, 322 Union street.

A lifelong resident of the community since he was born here in November, 1900, he was an active member of First Presbyterian church.

Surviving are his wife, Bertha; twin sons, David and John; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett R. Clark, North Warren; and one brother, Sylvester T. Clark, Warren.

The body will be brought to Warren this evening for removal to the Lutz-Vermilyea Funeral Home, where friends may call after 2 p. m. Saturday. Services will be held from there at 2 p. m. Sunday, with interment following in Pine Grove cemetery at Russell at the convenience of the family.

SMASHES DOPE RING

New York, Aug. 31—(P)—Police have smashed a $1,000,000-a-year Harlem wholesale dope ring supplying customers from coast to coast, they announced today. In an 11-hour roundup yesterday and last night, narcotics squad detectives arrested seven men who had been under surveillance for the past 10 weeks.

Partial Eclipse of Sun to be Visible On All Parts of the Eastern Seaboard

New York, Aug. 31—(P)—Early risers tomorrow will see a partial eclipse of the sun.

The phenomena will be visible on all of the eastern seaboard and west of the Mississippi river to a line approximately between Galveston, Tex., and Bismarck, N. D.

The sun will rise here partly eclipsed at 5:21 a. m. (EST). The shadow will deepen until 6:01 a. m. (EST), when about 87 per cent of the sun's surface will be blotted out. The shadow then will start to fade, disappearing at 7:10 (EST).

The last eclipse visible in the U. S. was April 7, 1940. The next is scheduled for May 30, 1984.

If you're going to take a look tomorrow, here are four "don'ts" listed for sun-gazers by the Better Vision Institute:

Don't peep through your fingers; don't look through a pinhole in a card; don't trust sunglasses or even a welder's goggles.

To view the eclipse safely, the institute says, look through an over-exposed photographic film or a piece of glass smoked by candle flame. Even then, don't stare at the sun continuously for a long time.

You never tried a fine car like This One

than most owners will ever need.

And you'll find that a ROADMASTER rolls with unsurpassed levelness and poise, thanks to coil springs on all four wheels—which is still another feature found on no other car in the fine-car field.

But the thrill that is yours, when you get this willing beauty out on the open road, is something that can't be summed up in any listing of features, one by one.

It's a "feel" which, we honestly believe, no other car can approach.

It's the sure way this dazzling performer holds the road—the way it responds to your slightest wish — the quick answer you get when you nudge the throttle—the extra security you feel in the velvet grip of the brakes—the complete freedom from tension you find in Dynaflo Drive—the sense of mastery that makes every mile a joy.

And, confidentially, there's one more important way in which ROADMASTER stands alone, and that is in the modest cost of its pounds and performance.

Better come in soon and check for yourself what a great car and a great buy this one really is.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

At 12:00, noon, all who wish to do so may buy their dinner and a stand will be open all afternoon for those who wish to buy light lunches.

A Farmers' Parade, including a number of local horses, has been planned for the early afternoon. Following this, the North Warren, Sugar Grove and Russell Volunteer Fire Departments will stage an equipment demonstration and there will be a full program of sports to interest all ages.

The Ferris wheel was invented by G. W. C. Ferris and first used at the World's Fair of 1893 in Chicago.

TIPS ON TUNING

It's seldom that a man can tell a woman to be quiet and get away with it. This gentleman can tell a whole group of women to be quiet and they respond immediately. He is Phil Spitalny, conductor of the most successful All-Girl Orchestra. The All-Girl Orchestra with Evelyn and her Singing Violin and other stand-out soloists will be featured on WNAE at 12 noon, starting this Sunday. This musical group will present a program that will make a perfect complement to the Wayne King Serenade and Dreamtime.

With the baseball season rounding the far turn and coming into the stretch, here is the schedule of games to be broadcast this coming week:

Saturday, 1:30, Brooklyn at New York; 3:30, Pittsburgh at St. Louis. Sunday, 3:30, Pittsburgh at St. Louis.

Monday, 2:30, Pittsburgh at Chicago (double-header). Tuesday, 1:30, open date time. Wednesday, 2:30, St. Louis at Chicago; 8:25, Cincinnati at Pittsburgh.

Thursday, 1:30, Philadelphia at Brooklyn; 8:25, Cincinnati at Pittsburgh.

Friday, 1:30, Philadelphia at Brooklyn; 8:25, St. Louis at Pittsburgh.

Sunday's single game in St. Louis will be broadcast on WRRN. Falcon's are playing at home again. Monday is Labor Day... which means that the production staff at WNAE will labor as usual... but the double-header usually played on Sunday will be played that day. The game will start at 2:30 and since there is no chance that it will be completed before 5:45, the second game of the double-header will be heard on WRRN.

The first of September brings a cut-back in time for WNAE. Just a half-hour this time with sign-off for the month at 7:30. On the Record will become a half-hour program and there will be some other changes that will be announced the early part of next week.

Labor Day, Oh Labor Day... from a poem by Mary Livingston... and while most people do not have to work at their regular jobs, many will be working about the house or taking trips. Remember, wherever you go... it's a better day with radio.

Football season is almost here and plans are being completed for the broadcast of the local high school games for those who cannot get to the games to see the Dragons in action. There is a heavy schedule this year... including a final game with Jamestown on the 10th of November. While there is no definite schedule of games to be broadcast as yet... it is believed that most of the games will be on either AM or FM. Saturday afternoon games will be on WNAE and night games will naturally be on WRRN. Plans have also been just about completed for a series of area college football broadcasts to fill up the Saturday afternoons when the Dragons are not playing. WRRN will also carry a complete Saturday scheduling of top college games.

The median age of male and VAC officers in the U. S. Army is between 35 and 36, according to Army records.

Sunday services will be curtailed in all Evangelical United Brethren churches Sunday because of the annual meeting of the Erie Conference in session at Camp Findlay, Findley Lake, N. Y.

In the three Warren churches First, Bethel and Salem, there will be neither morning worship nor church school, in order that members of all ages may attend the conference sessions. At Youngsville, however, Sunday school will be at the usual hour of ten o'clock, under the leadership of James Thompson.

Floyd Carter will be in charge of the midweek service at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday in First church and the WSWB will hold its regular meeting Thursday evening.

At Youngsville on Wednesday, there will be services at 7:30 for both young people and adults and the senior choir will rehearse at 8:35; Thursday at 3:45, the first rehearsal of the two-part choir for the new year will be held.

Later in the evening the staff held a business meeting to discuss and formulate plans for the September issue of the local Sylvania publication. (McIntosh Studio).

It Takes Persistence To Break Boring Routine

WRITES a housewife who wants to register a complaint about a recent column:

"You tell us women how important it is for us to get a little variety into family life. Good advice—if you can carry it out. But how about wives like me, who are married to men who are just plain disinterested in breaking up the dull routine the family has fallen into?"

"Night after night my husband comes home, eats dinner and then reads or listens to the radio until bedtime. Occasionally he suggests a movie, or friends drop in and the routine is broken to that extent. But if I suggest anything else, he throws cold water on the idea. So I long ago gave up. What else could I have done?"

Not have given up. The woman who is determined that family life is going to have a little variety often has to buck her husband's inertia.

But she can put some of her ideas across, if she is persistent in trying instead of being easily discouraged.

JUST GO AHEAD AND DO IT

WITHOUT talking about it beforehand, she can have a picnic supper all packed when he gets home and say when her husband comes in from work: "I thought it would be fun for us to drive out to the lake and have a picnic supper tonight."

Or she can invite friends in and then mention that they are coming. Or get tickets ahead of time to a concert or ball game or whatever. It is better to push a husband into doing a few things that add a little variety to family life than just to let family life grow dull and boring because he isn't enthusiastic about falling in with plans.

Boredom is the biggest foe of marriage and the greatest threat to family life. The wife who settles for the same old routine day after day after day is settling for boredom.

MENU SUGGESTIONS

BY GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

EGGPLANT is plentiful. So are chickens. Your chicken store or frozen food counter has breasts reasonably priced. So let's give the family a treat. Serve this gourmet recipe from the Chalet Suzanne in Lake Wales, Fla.

Breast of Chicken on Fried Eggplant
Two whole chicken breasts. 1/4 cup fat, 1 tablespoon minced onion, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1 cup water, 3-ounce can sliced broiled mushrooms, 1 small eggplant, 1 1/2 pounds; 1/2 cup heavy cream, 1 tablespoon flour.
Cut chicken from breast bone in two large pieces, or ask your meat dealer to do it for you. Cut each strip of breast into three filets, making 12 pieces in all. Dredge these pieces of chicken breast with flour by shaking in paper bag with 2 tablespoons flour.

Melt fat over moderate heat. In 9-inch frying pan or chicken fryer. Add dredged chicken and brown on both sides lightly. Sprinkle in the onion, salt and pepper.
Let cook another 5 minutes. Add the water and the contents of can of mushrooms. Cover and let cook until chicken is tender, about 15 minutes. Meanwhile peel eggplant and cut in half-inch slices.
Dip in flour and brown well on both sides in small amount of fat. When chicken is done, blend together the cream and 1 tablespoon flour. Add to chicken, stirring constantly. Cook until thickened. Arrange two slices of the fried eggplant on each serving plate.
Top with three filets of chicken in the mushroom sauce. Serve immediately, garnished with a slice of red ripe tomato and a few sprays of crisp green water cress.

SUNDAY'S MENU

BREAKFAST: Melon, griddle cakes and sausage, enriched toast, butter or fortified margarine, marmalade, coffee, milk.
DINNER: Fresh tomato juice cocktail, breast of chicken over eggplant slices, corn on cob, raw vegetable platter, sherbet and cookies, coffee, milk.
SUPPER: Sliced tomatoes and cold cuts, potato salad, toasted hamburger buns with cheese, peaches, iced tea, milk.

Warren County Firemen's Mutual Aid Test at Clarendon is Success

THE HOSE STRETCHED AND STRETCHED—More than 6000 feet of 2½ inch fire hose was strung out along the Chapman Dam road near Clarendon last night as part of a mutual aid test conducted by six fire companies affiliated with the Warren County Active Volunteer Firemen's Association. Three of the seven fire trucks which were used in the demonstration are shown in the above Times-Mirror photos. At left is the hookup with the Russell pumper; center shows Youngsville firemen connecting their pumper; and right photo shows North Warren firemen awaiting the signal to start pumping.

The firemen started out with this problem: A big fire, imaginary of course, was raging in the heart of Clarendon near Railroad street, and the town's water hydrant system was out of service.

Clarendon firemen, under supervision of Chief Leonard Falbriski, initiated the test by sending help calls to fire fighting units in Sheffield, North Warren, Russell, Youngsville and Pleasant Township. The Clarendon firemen then rushed two trucks to the scene and poured water on the blaze from their booster tanks.

Sheffield, first to arrive, rushed to the Farnsworth bridge, more than a mile away from the supposed fire scene, and dropped a suction hose into the creek. Sheffield pumped water to the intersection of the Farnsworth road and the Chapman dam road, where North Warren picked up the relay. Next in line was the Russell pumper, then the pumper from Youngsville and finally the pumped from Clarendon.

In the meantime, Pleasant Township firemen had arrived at Clarendon, and kept pouring on the supposed fire from their 1000-gallon booster tank until the pumping relay could be set up. Two radio cars from the Chautauqua County Firemen's Association also arrived on the scene and set up an effective message relay between the fire scene and the base pumper more than a mile away. For the final result, see photo below.

Sheffield Streets Being Cleaned by Fire Department

Sheffield, Aug. 31—Members of Sheffield's volunteer fire department used between 3,500 and 4,000 gallons of water last night when hosing and cleaning the streets in the business loop. Plans call for the men to wash Main street from the intersection of the railroad tracks and Main street and then along through the business section next Tuesday evening.

This is part of an effort being made by the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce and also the fire department to improve the community through cleaning up the streets.

The Chamber of Commerce decided at its meeting Tuesday night in the Legion home that a man would be hired by the Chamber to clean the streets in the business area each Thursday afternoon, the afternoon that the business establishments in the community are closed.

Motorists will be requested not to park in the business area on Thursday afternoons. Merchants will be asked to sweep debris off their sidewalks and into the street prior to the cleanup time each week.

Further plans in the cleanup campaign call for the placing of disposal cans throughout the business section.

Other plans made at the Chamber of Commerce meeting included the planing of the old mill bridge so that the Mill street children might avail themselves of that shorter route to school this fall. Brush will be cleared from the path.

Much of the underbrush at the Deerlick recreation area has been cleared away from the picnic site and the public is invited to inspect the area.

Richard Hanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Harry Hanson, was discharged from Warren General Hospital Thursday and is now at home where he is rapidly recovering from injuries received when he fell from a ladder while painting a house.

Twenty-five enthusiastic Sheffield High school football players worked out under a hot sun this week in preparation for their opening game with Union City to be played there on Sept. 8.

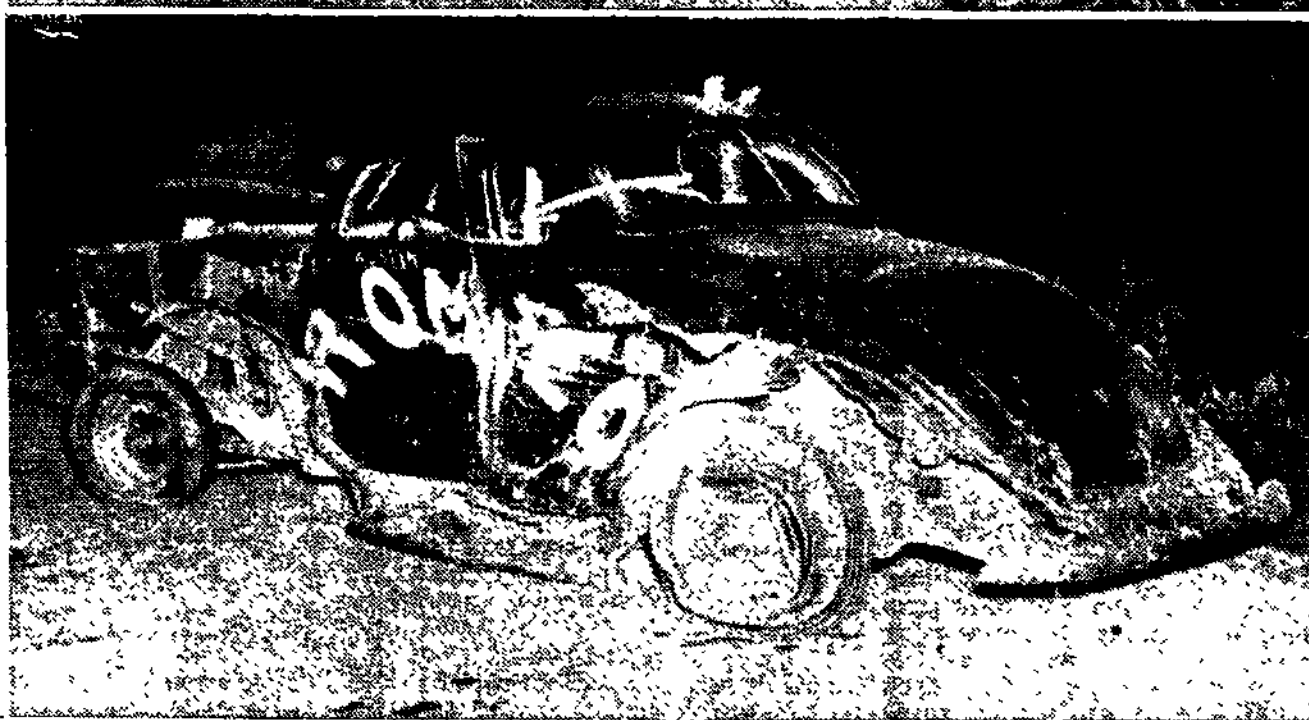

Coach Ralph Santo, who will announce his starting lineup next week, has eight returning lettermen on this year's squad. They are: Co-captains Jim Slater and Nick Hedman, Alan Haynes, Ronald Bross, LeRoy Darr, Joe Piehuta, Donald Ka-back and Buck Miller.

Elwood E. Kinney has returned to his work at California, Pa., after spending six weeks attending classes at Columbia University in New York City.

Mrs. Mary Sabol, bride-elect of Donald Camp, was honored at a shower given at the Legion home by Mrs. Elmer Slack, Mrs. Chilton Henry, Mrs. George Stanko, Jr., and Mrs. Dean Camp.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service for the First Methodist church will meet at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday in the church parlors. Mrs. Jay Catlin will lead devotions and Mrs. Emma Fox will have the program. Refreshment committee members will be Mrs. W. O. Christensen, Miss Clara Dunham, Mrs. Bertha Wolfe and Mrs. Harry Priset.

Two Vehicles Damaged in Early Morning Accident

Picture above shows Oldsmobile almost completely demolished when the vehicle, operated by John F. Trevenen, Henry street, crashed into a stock racing car below, being towed by Gerald J. Hildon, Jamestown R.D. 2, on Route 62 near North Warren, at an early hour this morning.

Arraigned before Justice of the Peace Paul Leiby, at Rogertown, this morning, John Falconer Trevenen, 620 Henry street, was bound over to the next term of Warren county court on a charge of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated.

Trevenen entered a plea of guilty and bond was set at $500, which was furnished. Pennsylvania State Police were called at 1 a. m. today to a point on U. S. Route 62 at the "high board fence," scene of other accidents and a fatal mishap last July 4th, when a car driven by Trevenen had struck another machine. They determined it was Trevenen, traveling south and on the left side of Route 62, had crashed into a stock racing car being towed by another machine driven by Gerald J. Hildon, Jamestown R.D. 2. Both cars were badly damaged.

State Police said Hildon advised them he had made an effort to avoid being hit by Trevenen, and did get the lead car out of the path of the oncoming machine which then struck the towed car.

Trevenen was lodged in the county jail until this morning when he appeared before Magistrate Leiby and was released under bond.

A passenger in the Hildon car, Richard Christensen, 21, of Jamestown, sustained a laceration of his left hand in the accident.

Sulphur found in Texas and Louisiana deposits is 99 per cent pure.

LET US HONOR THIS DAY AMERICA'S FREE WORKERS LABORING FOR DEMOCRACY

We pause this one day a year to pay tribute to the producing force of our nation and to consider the debt we owe America's worker... greater and greater production is the unique key to America's defense in our present struggle against tyrannical totalitarianism. Foremost on our battle line are America's workers not only for producing the many wonderful things for our need, but also for the role they play in creating that free society that is America.

It is to them that the following firms offer their congratulations on this Labor Day, which commemorates their outstanding accomplishments:

OPEN AIR DANCING IS POPULAR SUMMER PASTIME IN NEW YORK

DOUBLE TROUBLE—New York Giants Alvin Dark slides back to first base, the second victim of a double play in the first inning of a game with the Cincinnati Reds in New York. Dark darted toward second on Don Mueller's fly to right field, which was caught by Reds' Hank Edwards. First sacker Ted Kluszewski got ball and trapped Dark. Nearby is Giants' coach Freddy Fitzsimmons (6).

WHERE CHILDREN DIED—Firemen wet down glowing embers in the Harlem fourth-floor tenement apartment where two children lost their lives in a flash fire in New York. The blaze, which began while the tenants were asleep, was of undetermined origin and its fury forced panic-stricken residents to jump from windows or otherwise make an escape in any possible manner.

HERE FOR TREATMENT—Crippled by poho since he was three years old, Antonio Gaidoni, 10, is wheeled away from the strato-clipper that brought him to New York from Shannon, Ireland, by stewardess Irene Mitroka. The lad is to undergo treatment at the Institute of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, New York University Bellevue Medical Center.

ALL GROWN UP—Would you have guessed that this pert young lady waving good-bye en route to England was former child star Margaret O'Brien. Before leaving New York, Margaret gave the camera some shocking proof that time does march on for young actresses as well as older ones.

OPEN-AIR DANCING

MUST BE SEASONAL—It's probably the weather, but dancing in the open is very popular at this time of year in New York as these pictures indicate.

ASSORTED MOODS—In Central Park, an American Indian group demonstrates tribal dances under the arc lights, far left, as United Nations delegates and families look on. Youngsters being coached in some square dance patterns, center, prepare to go into a fast turn to the delight of the onlookers, and doing the "bamboo dance" of the Philippines, Victoria Reantiello and Celso Al Carunagan, left, represent their homeland.

WINE CONCENTRATE—Capt. Lucien Pinto of the French Army pours a portion of the "concentrated" wine in Paris that has been put into service for French soldiers. The new drink, which will supposedly help solve the problem of supplying the troops with their beloved wine, is 60 per cent alcohol, and concentrated six times. The results so far have been satisfactory.

SHARING THE BREEZE—All the advantages of sea bathing—except salt water—are being provided by this beach scene near Berlin, Germany. City dwellers are shown taking advantage of the new river beach which has been constructed for their enjoyment.

RANDY ON RADIO—Randy Turpin, who will defend his world middleweight championship title against Sugar Ray Robinson in September, is listening in New York to a playback of a radio interview with Max Kase, radio sportscaster. The British champ is training strenuously, anxious to take his title back home with him.

"I Will Make You Fishers of Men"

SOON after Jesus began to preach, He was walking by the sea of Galilee. He saw Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea. Christ said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men." They left their nets, and followed Him to become the first disciples. Jesus also saw James the son of Zebedee and John his brother, mending their nets, and He called them. They also followed Him. (Taken from St. Matthew 4, 17-22)

Christianity and Racial Prejudice

WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.
SCRENCIES and inconsistencies are common among men, but it is doubtful whether discrepancy and inconsistency happen, persistent, and more spread than that between the al and color-line prejudices the plain teachings of the New Testament.
The Christian Church began in the Master gathered around the first disciples, but the Day Pentecost has been commonly used as marking the beginning of world organization (Acts 2), was a racially conglomerate of people (Acts 2:9-11), who did Peter that day, and experienced the outpouring of the Spirit. He was no racial prejudice.
Social and religious prejudices meet a testing time. Only a vision convinced Peter that should not call what God had made "common and unclean" (Acts 10), and an angelic message (Philips) to the baptizing and coming into the Christian fold a black-skinned Ethiopian. (Acts 8:26-39.)
At even these incidents with plain teaching and implications did not prevent various prejudices among the early Christians, many passages in Paul's Epistles show.
The greatest of all in the rebuke of al and religious prejudice is example of the Master Himself. The famous incident of the meeting with the woman of Samaria, in the fourth chapter of the Gospel. Read in the light of time and environment that story is remarkable in its revelation of how Jesus in His earthly life lived above the prejudices, and even the customs, of the time and place.
The woman marvelled that Jesus, a Jew, should have asked a drink of her, for "the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans." But she might equally have marvelled, as did the disciples when they returned from the city, that Jesus should have conversed with her at all. For it was against the custom for a man to meet and converse with a woman in a public place. The woman, moreover, was of none too savory a character.
Yet Jesus treated her with courtesy and kindness. If He pressed somewhat closely on her past and present moral situation, it was with gentleness of rebuke rather than harshness; and it was to her that He not only declared His Messiahship, but also uttered the greatest word concerning the true nature of worship that has ever been spoken.
How is it that the example of the Master has not been more widely a model for all Christians in their attitude toward their fellowmen? If early Christians failed to rise always above prejudices, perhaps it is not amazing that later generations of Christians have failed. But the discrepancy between the preaching of the gospel of brotherly love, to love one another as God has loved us, and its actual practice is very great, as the most casual observer must realize.
It is a discrepancy which must be eliminated.

North might avoid a free bid of two diamonds if he had not passed originally. Ordinarily, this bid would compel South to bid again. In other words, North's response of two diamonds may push South to three clubs even when South has a near-minimum opening bid.

There is no such problem after North has passed originally. South is at liberty to pass two diamonds if he has a near-minimum opening bid. He will know that there is no game in the cards and that two diamonds is as good a contract as any.

As it happened, of course, South had a very good hand. He was

The Progress of American Labor

When Labor Day was first celebrated (by the Knights of Labor in New York City in 1882) who could have visualized a time when more than 60 million workers in the United States would be gainfully employed? Not only is this current figure close to an all-time high, but the average pay is at record levels.

The role of the worker in the nation, his skill, his productive capacity, and his influence have never been more important than at present.

No business will be transacted by this bank on Labor Day.

OUTCAST OF DESTINY

PAUL EVAN LEHMAN

Chapter 19

HEY halted a couple hundred feet from the Palace and Brent stepped to the ground. "If anything starts," he said tersely, "the horses and get out of here."

He walked along the alley, and the vacant store watched him. All around he could see forms moving. He took a piece, slipped around the corner into the building, then made way to the roof. Lil's window was open and he called softly, "Lil!"

"Yes, Tex?"

"Think you can climb over to the roof?"

"Footsteps sounded in the passageway beneath and a voice called sharply. "Who's up there?" Brent stood rigid, hoping the man would leave. He didn't; he used his voice in a shout, "Hey, Lil! Over here! He's on the stairs!"

Brent ran towards the scuffle, hearing under his breath. He started to lower himself through a opening but drew back as he heard men enter the building. Somebody yelled, "The trapper's out! Sock it to him if he shows!"

Brent ran to the back, threw himself flat and wiggled over the eaves. He hung for a second, then toppled.

A gun roared as he released a hold and he felt the bite of the bullet on his cheek. He jerked out his Colt while he was in midair, landed like a cat and whirled. He saw a dark bulk and fired and the bulk folded abruptly.

He started running towards the building and his hand sank into a body of men rounded the far corner of the Palace. He was cut off. He fired into the mob until his gun was empty and had the small feeling that he was licked.

And then from beyond the charging men came a bloodcurdling yell and the thunder of hoofs, and the evanescence stopped in their tracks and turned. The Cockeyed Kid and the two horses were coming in a thunderous rush.

Right through the mob they ran, scattering men to right and left. Bub's gun was blasting and every shot somebody fell or staggered away. With a cry of joy, Brent started running in a course parallel with that of the horses. A man leaped at him from the corner of the building but Brent hit him like a charging bull and sent him flying. Then his horse was abreast of him and he snatched the horn with his left hand, jumped and let the momentum carry him into the saddle.

He thrust the empty Colt into its holster and seized the rein Bub pressed into his hand. Lead was going about them, but it was dark and they were moving swiftly. At the next passageway Brent wheeled his horse sharply to the left and Bub swung with him. They reached the street and turned right and pounded along towards freedom.

The houses of Destiny dropped behind them, and they were on the open range and headed for the nearby hills.

THEY rode hard, Bub choosing the route, and as dawn was breaking he led the way into a mountain park where there were grass and water and a grove of trees which would afford concealment. When they reached the latter Brent said, "I don't want you to get into this any further than you are. Ride back to town; it was too dark in that alley for anybody to recognize you."

The Cockeyed Kid glared in his general direction. "You don't haf to tell me how you got into this mess; I'm gonna help git you out. For one thing you'll need grub and I kin fetch it to you."

Brent put a hand on his shoulder. "Thanks, Oldtimer. Hunker down: I'm going to tell you a story."

They squatted on their heels by their horses and Brent told him everything. The old man listened without interrupting and when Brent had finished he nodded vigorously. "I'm with you, every jump in the road. That flat, and my guess is that the feller you're huntin' is Jack Roselle."

"That's what I thought at first, but now I'm sure he's in the clear. He told me last night there was a man I'd have to meet and said he'd take me to him after the Palace closed. How about Bill Williams?"

"Second choice, with Cliff Durham runnin' him a close third."

"Cliff Durham," Brent was surprised.

"Why not? As marshal he can nose around anywhere he wants and talk to any ol' fellows without rousin' suspicion."

him and found Acheson and Jessup innocent of his charges of coddling Communists.

Foes of McCarthy, saying he has hidden behind senatorial immunity from libel or slander action in making his Communist-in-government charges, have demanded he prove his accusations in court.

McCarthy's speech was, in effect, a rebuttal to Secretary of Labor Maurice J. Tobin who addressed the VFW convention on Wednesday.

Tobin told the veterans: "The men who founded this nation did not intend the senate of the United States to be a citadel for slanderers to hide in from the libel laws."

Tobin said some Americans have shown a tendency to forget that the Bill of Rights provides for a fair trial in a court room. McCarthy apparently was his principal target.

Chapter 20

UB arrived in Destiny shortly before noon to find the town actually deserted. Everybody in a whisper, "Little good news" then began talking brightly to Lil. When they reached his shanty Bub told them good-by and went inside. He stretched out on his bunk and proceeded to catch up with his sleep.

Bub ate his supper and returned to the Palace. By this time all the searchers were in with the exception of those led by Jack Roselle. They had probably gone clear to Juniper and could not be expected back until the next day.

Ferguson came over to sit beside Bub. He said, "Well, it looks as though he got in the clear."

"Sure does," agreed Bub. "Got any idea who it was that helped him?"

Ferguson gave him a shrewd look. "I was hoping you'd be able to tell me that."

Bub shook his head. "I figured it was that Purdy feller."

"They checked up on him right away. He was all present and accounted for."

Bub glanced about him, then lowered his voice. "Sure it wasn't you, Uncle Jim?"

Ferguson looked astonished. "No, it wasn't me. The first I knew anything was going on was when I heard the shooting."

Bub did not stay until the Palace closed because he did not know when Brent would try to sneak into town. He went home early and hung a bit of white cloth in the left window.

IT WAS nearly dawn when Brent halted his horse in the brush a hundred yards behind Bub's stable. He had traveled cautiously, taking his time, although he was fairly certain that the search for him would not continue throughout the night. He waited, squatting on his heels and smoking, his horse standing beside him over his trailing rein.

The sky began to lighten and a faint glow stole over the eastern hills. The drab shacks which lined the alley began to take form and his gaze settled on the barn with the broken roof. A bit of white hung limply from the left window. He got up, took the rein and started walking towards it. He was in the open but he had no

SANFORD HOME FROM BOY SCOUT JAMBOREE

The Sanford home at 114 West Main street, Youngsville, was a busy place today when many neighbors and friends of Gilbert Sanford dropped in to greet him and to see the many souvenirs he brought home after attending the World Boy Scout Jamboree in Bad Ischl, Austria, August 3 to 13.

Gilbert, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert M. Sanford, Sr., will be a junior this year in Youngsville High School. He and David Glassman, son of Attorney and Mrs. William Glassman, 407 Fourth avenue, Warren, represented Warren County Council, David will return on Wednesday, having remained in New York to visit relatives. Gilbert arrived in Youngsville last evening.

SAD NEWS FOR KIDS!

Spring City, Aug. 31.—(P)—Fire badly damaged the only grade school in this Chester county borough today—just in time to give the kids an added vacation. The blaze started in the basement and was controlled before it reached the second floor, but offices and several classrooms on the ground floor were burned out.

EXTENSION NOTICE
Washington, Aug. 31.—(P)—The Defense Department announced today it is extending until Nov. 30 its trial policy of permitting draftees to join the service of their choice even after they have taken pre-induction physicals. The department said the experiment has worked out well thus far.

Sulfur was discovered along the Gulf Coast by oil drillers about 1800.

Suppa Studebakers Cop 2nd Half Sunset Crown; Playoff to Start Tonight at Hospital Field

Suppa Studebakers tucked away the second-half crown in the Sunset Baseball League by downing Hammond Iron, 8-3, at the State Hospital field. A large crowd was on hand to watch the clash.

Last night's game was played to break a deadlock for first place in the second half standings.

The same two teams will clash again tonight at 6 o'clock at the State Hospital field in the first game of a best-of-three series to decide the season champion. Hammond Iron was the winner in the first half race.

Second game in the series is scheduled for Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the State Hospital field. If a third game is needed, it will be played Tuesday night at 6 o'clock at the same diamond.

Gail Frank, pitching his first game of the season, was a surprise starter for Suppas. He yielded six hits, three of them to Chuck Reese in three chances at the plate. Ross Ananea did the receiving.

Battery for Hammond Iron was Baker and White. Baker also pitched a good brand of ball, allowing only six hits, but was hampered by costly errors.

Trask was the big stickler for Suppas, slamming a double and a single in four chances. He also was credited with three RBIs.

Sports Spotlight Swings to Football Over Weekend

The spotlight on sports turns to football over the holiday, when the Warren High Dragons make their debut Monday afternoon at War Memorial Field in the annual intra-squad contests.

Main attraction of the afternoon will pair the varsity and the seconds, getting underway at 2:30 o'clock. The freshmen and sophomores tangle at 1 o'clock and the thirds and fourths battle at 1:45, in two preliminary scraps.

S-P-O-R-T-O-R-I-A-L-S

(By Joe Gardner)

The coach and manager of the Holling Press Debs is an old time ball player, T. J. "Tom" O'Brien. Tom not only cracks the whip over his fifteen girl softball team but acts as father and counselor. He is a strict disciplinarian, works the girls hard in practice and expects them to carry out team strategy without question. "Tom" has guided his club to National prominence and an almost successful quest for the National championship, being nosed out of the Girls National Softball title by the Arizona Ramblers at San Antonio, Texas last year. With Doreen Forslund, Betty Hollman and Rose Colletti he has probably one of the best pitching staffs in the country.

Alice Fleming is his mainstay behind the bat, with a nice .396 batting average, she leads the club in the hitting department. Dorothy Kraft helps to carry the catching chores and alternates in the outfield boasting a .333 average with the willow. No club can go very far without a good third baseman and here "Tom" has developed not only a sensational defensive player in Bridget Ferrentino but this gal is a clutch hitter and in order to be a clutch hitter any athlete must have nerves of iron and ice water for blood. Last we be misunderstood this description of a clutch hitter fits only when, during a tense moment of a crucial game a player is confronted with a situation calling for a hit that could mean the winning of a ball game. Miss Ferrentino is a vivacious, hard playing third baseman with an arm like a whiplash and her ability to throw out a fast stepping opponent at first base will be something to see here Saturday, September 8th. "Tom" is also originator of the "Rockette Technique" something new in sports. Borrowed partly from the Rockettes of Broadway fame and partly from football. This precision group movement when going out on the field is really something to see. The Holling Debs, besides being one of the nation's leading mushball clubs are also showmen in their own right.

BAKSI TOPS HENRI

Mr. Carmel, Aug. 31—(P)—Joe Baksi, 215, of Kulpmont, Pa., started his comeback campaign last night by winning an easy 10-round decision over Art Henri of New York. The battle attracted a record crowd of 5,000 who watched Baksi floor the 186-pound New Yorker with a left hook and right uppercut in the ninth. It was Baksi's first start since he kayoed Bernie Reynolds in Madison Square Garden over a year ago. He suffered a broken right hand in that bout and has been inactive since.

The Changing Landscapes

RALPH A. ECKERT

Hello folks: The past few weeks of dry weather have helped the farmers who are harvesting grain but a good deal of rain is needed in order that ground can be plowed for winter wheat.

Now is a good time to construct those diversions and drainage terraces which are planned so that the most good may be obtained from them next spring during the rainy seasons.

Clarence Johnson, farmer up Scandia way, has the conservation survey completed on his farm. He is building up the farm with a well-balanced liming and fertilizer program, and plans to increase his stock as the farm will support them.

The conservation survey has been completed on Andrew Marfink's farm in Saybrook. He was working away at the time but Mrs. Marfink was very helpful and furnished information necessary. A big problem on the farm is a mile run which winds its way down through the farm. Plans will call for the placing the stream back in its original channel to conserve the farming ground.

Out Spring Creek way, the conservation survey has been completed on Bob Mead's farm. Bob spends most of his day working at the Bear Lake milk plant but still finds time to keep his farm work up to date.

The number of completely managed farm ponds in Warren county has been increased by completion of fertilizing and stooking with large mouth bass and blue gills of the following ponds: Hugh Sechrist, Egypt Hollow road—275 fish for his .25 acre pond; George Walker, Conewango avenue extension—720 fish for his .6 acre pond, and Maxwell Warner, Sugar Grove—275 fish for his .25 acre pond. Here's looking forward to lots of good fishing in the not too distant future in Warren county.

See you all next week.

HERE AND THERE

1917 to 1924, died in a Cleveland hospital Tuesday.

Some persons may be trying to play a joke on a couple of their friends, but we were informed by a rather mysterious telephone call from a pay station at 6:36 this morning that two young women, one from Akeley and the other from Russell, were scared by the "nubile nudist" said to be roaming the Russell-Akeley area at an early hour today. . . . Unless negotiations result satisfactorily a strike looms in a major industry within the next few weeks, we are informed.

OUR ROUNDED UP AFTER STREET FIGHT

There was just no time limit and no round limit on a sort of cooperative little battle which started among alleged friends at a West Side street corner at 12:57 a. m. today because Borough police were called out twice to stop the fracas.

The participants were ordered to disband and go home when police made their first visit. The second call came as soon as they had left the spot, and this time no such orders were issued. Police accumulated four battalions in all, three of whom will face a charge of disorderly conduct while the fourth must answer to having been inebriate.
